Czecho.-Slovakian Passport No. 87/36 was issued to one Fritz SCHICK in Shanghai on July 18, 1936. The registration papers relating to this passport are now in the hands of the German Consulate-General by whom SCHICK is regarded as a German national. No further details can be secured from these sources.

As far as our records show, nobody named SCHICK was connected in any way with ^{*}General Von STECKT during the latter's stay in China as Military Adviser to the Nationalist Government.

In view of the fact that all official Czecho-slovakian affairs have been taken over by the German Consulate-General, it has not been deemed advisable to press the enquiry too far in order to avoid any possible embarrassing questioning.
